

CLEAN CLEANING

Overview: Skills Program

The basic principles of cleaning will be explained and demonstrated. The candidate will be able to perform basic cleaning tasks within a commercial, industrial, pharmaceutical, food handling, domestic and health care cleaning environment. The cleaner will be able to identify the components of cleaning, prepare for cleaning and know what to do at the end of a shift. This programme is designed to provide a general understanding of what is involved in the cleaning task. This include areas of motivating staff, needs and negotiation, handling groups and discipline and how cost should be managed for improvement of the quality and quantity of work output .

Program Outline

The objective is to provide an understanding of the main components of measured day work, the roles and responsibilities of the cleaners, methods aligned with company standards and the difference between managing the budget without sacrificing quality.

- Identifying the components of cleaning

- How to obtain information on the duties of the cleaner
- Preparing for cleaning - chemicals, equipment, consumables
- Principles of cleaning
- End-of-shift duties including work sites' procedures, legislation and finished product

Specification and duration:

Credits: 6 | Duration: 2 Days

No formal experience required;

Competence in communication and mathematical literacy AET level 1.

EQUIP!

EMPOWER!

EXCEL!